Committee Reports

Landscaping. It was reported that Kitty Wilde was doing a lot of work in the flower beds around the center. She was reimbursed for flowers that she purchased. Dianne Muscarello gave a report on the work that was done around the building. Sam Moore's Youth Corps worked at cleaning out the rocks in the flower beds. The dead trees were chopped down and removed. Question on what to do with the firewood. New pine trees were planted in their place. The list of helpers is on the website. Frank Pallan came and used his tractor to move the gravel and used the brush hog to clean up the blackberries and brush.

Old Business

Bingo-Application will go in the mail tomorrow.

New Business

Bryan Vigue made a presentation to the membership to have a Community Christmas Dinner on Christmas Day, it would be free to the community. They will supply the food and need the building and kitchen for eight hours. Patricia Gilbert made a motion to let the Vignes use the building for free. Doris Rucker second. Discussion. Motion carried unanimously.

Susan Acree sent an email with her presentation. The Glide High School 70s class reunion committee would like a reduced rate or waived fees for the building for their class reunion. Stu Carlson made a motion to offer the hall to the reunion committee without waiving the rental fees. Dianne Muscarello seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

Stu Carlson reported on the stairs getting done. Dennis Moore stated that Rod Cox is a certified welder and will help with the stairs and supervise.

Garage Sale-Susan Flury wanted to know if we were going to have the "Second" Annual Garage Sale in June. It was given to the Event Committee.

Job Corps needs jobs for the kids.

Norleen Zumsteg asked about the murals. Nancy Acosta has stated that she will continue with the murals.

Rental Guidelines. Christy Scheufele reported that the rental committee did meet and came up with some guidelines and are working on the rental agreement.

Glide Wildflower Show - Patricia Gilbert said that the Wildflower group will bring the contract for signing at the next meeting.

Discussion on our next membership meeting on the 21st. If the Wildflower Show isn't using the annex that night we will meet there, if they are using it we will meet the following Thursday, the 28th.

Bill Scheufele reported on the biodiesel oil for the heating oil. Not a good idea at this time, too expensive.

Discussion on changing the time of the membership meetings to 7 pm. It was decided not to do this at this time.

Dom Mosca reported on the letter from Senior Services about their contract renewal. The board of directors approved the changes. Patricia Gilbert moved to accept the proposal for the new contract. Norleen Zumsteg second. Motion carried unanimously.

Announcements.
