

The Glide Community Club ~ Membership Meeting

October 20, 2005

The October 20th Membership meeting of The Glide Community Club was held at the Center and called to order by President Susan Flury at 6:30 pm.

Minutes were read and approved.

Treasurer's report was read and approved. Nancy Tague asked about the bingo deposits, concern about the length of time from the night of bingo to the date of deposit.

Correspondence – We had a letter and brochure from the Grants Pass Community Club asking for advice.

Old/Unfinished Business/Committee Reports

Grants - Bill Scheufele gave report for Jack Skalos. It was discussed to have an additional committee member have copies of the paperwork for the grants.

Bingo - Norleen Zumsteg gave the committee's report. $50 is set aside for the scholarship fund.

Spaghetti Feed - Dom Mosca got a notice in the paper thanking everyone for their donations. He will get the names to Christy Scheufele, so she can send them their donation receipts.

Susan Flury wants to get a letter out to the community, letting people know what is happening at the Center. She would like to get it out by November 1st.

Norleen Zumsteg brought up having an open house in January. Discussion. Nancy Tague suggested having it during the Christmas bazaar.

Landscaping – Dianne Muscarello reported that they haven't met yet.

First Citizen Award – Nancy Tague reported that she has been getting together the history of the award.

By-Laws – Norleen Zumsteg made a motion to have the changes to the by-laws presented to the membership at the annual meeting. Dianne Muscarello second. Some of the changes discussed were taking out the dates/times for the meetings, changing from one proxy to two proxies, and only one member of a household on the board.

Stairs – Susan Flury reported that they are in the last stages. They are ready to be painted according to Stu Carlson.

Cow Creek Foundation – Susan Flury stated that she sent them a financial statement for the grant we are applying for.

New Business

Susan Flury brought up that the cleaning crew won't be doing the cleaning for free any more after November 1st. She also brought up that the Job Corps can repair our Reader Board.

Halloween Party – Sam Moore said that the pumpkins are all being donated.

Christmas Tree Lighting – Stu Carlson will get the trees again. December 10th will be the date for the bazaar, open house, bake sale and Meatball sandwiches will be for sale. Joann Newton and Sam Moore will look at getting the children doing ornaments. Youth Corps will do the bake sale table.

Wildflower Show – Nancy Stern brought up a need to put up black-out shades for the annex. They will measure for them and install them. She also discussed the need for a resource room. They would like a public space about 8 x 10 with shelves. She suggested that we could have this included with our grant applications. She also talked to the Youngs and the Ford Foundation about the lot between the annex and Munchies. The Wildflower Show will be held on April 29 and 30. VFW can't do the lunches, asked if the club would like to do it. We could make $1000. Need to let her know in the next month.
