

The Glide Community Club – Membership Meeting

December 15, 2005

The Glide Community Club's December membership meeting was called to order by President Susan Flury at 6:35 pm.
Minutes were read and approved.
Treasurer's Report was read and approved.

Committee Reports

Landscaping – Dianne Muscarello and the Landscaping committee acknowledged Kitty Davis' work around the building, she weeded, planted and kept things looking nice. Dianne then handed out their Landscaping proposal for the Grants. The proposal will go in with the Ford Foundation grant.

Grants - Bill Scheufele gave report.

Bingo – Dom Mosca reminded everyone that Bingo is every Friday night. He will be picking up 12-16 more tables. We have the money from the Spaghetti Feed and Christmas Bazaar for them.

First Citizen - Nancy Tague handed out the proposal and reported that three items needed to be done. The event - May 1st (Saturday), the pins in February and the Plaques. Patricia Gilbert moved to accept the First Citizen Proposal as written. Trudy Walker second. Motion carried. Discussion of money and fund-raising.

Unfinished Business

Back steps - Will be ready in January.

Dishwasher -Dennis Moore reported on purchasing the dishwasher. Cheaper to have one shipped in. Here was $4750 and $3999 for the shipped one. We will have a licensed plumber install it when it arrives, to keep the warranty in place.

Christmas Bazaar - Christy Scheufele reported that the event brought in $345.80.

Christmas Dinner - Everything is going as planned. It is open to the public.

New Business

Membership Dues and Registration Forms are due.

Announcements.

Christmas Dinner - Christmas Day.

Next board and membership meetings on January 19th, 2006.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:20 pm.

Respectfully submitted:
