How to Nominate Someone - Using the Nomination Outline

- On your own paper, answer the questions on the other side. Please answer all the questions.
 - If your nominee serves the community in more than one way, answer the questions for each activity.
 - Seek information from other people who know your nominee. Make a few phone calls!
 - Provide as much information as you can. Don't assume others know what your nominee does. Wow the Selection Committee by explaining what makes this person outstanding.
 - One nomination, one nominee! Each nomination must be for only one person. You may submit more than one nomination. To nominate a couple, submit two nominations.
 - Nominations must be received by the stated date.
